MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT

I hope this message finds you all in good health and high spirits.

I am writing to you with immense pride and gratitude for the publication of seventh volume of 'The Agrineer', the flagship journal of agricultural engineering in Nepal.

I want to start by expressing my sincere thanks and congratulations to the publication team of The Agrineer Volume 7 for the successful publication. Also, I appreciate the hardworking academic members and researchers who have tirelessly worked towards the publication of this journal. Your unwavering commitment to advancing the field of agricultural engineering is truly inspiring.

The research and articles presented within the journal will serve as a valuable resource for fellow scholars, professionals and students in the field. I hope this journal helps to mark a better recognition of Nepalese Agricultural Engineers and encourage the policy makers to provide career opportunities to agricultural engineers for the advancement of agro-based economy of Nepal.

I am also indebted to Department of Agricultural Engineering, Purwanchal Campus along with all the sponsors and helping hands during the journal publication.

Let us celebrate this success together and look forward to even bigger achievements in the future.

Warm regards,

President
Madhav Bashyal
